

Official Opening of Sunnymead's new conservatory!

Family and friends of Sunnymead Resident Nan Trimble, joined her last Friday (2nd November) as she cut the ribbon to the new Sunnymead Conservatory declaring it officially open. The conservatory has been given a home-from-home feel with beautiful new decor, and is another area that Residents living in the Victorian-styled house can choose to spend their day.

Nan's daughter Eileen Clarke said 'the conservatory is a great asset to Sunnymead and I know that the Residents will really appreciate and value the garden views and wildlife.'

Proprietor Linda Nesbitt understands that Residents may wish to spend some quiet time away from the flurry of activity that goes on in Sunnymead, and the conservatory is the perfect place to go and relax.

Sunnymead have recently launched a 'Healthy Aging Club' which offers a range of services such as Daycare and Luncheon Club.
